AFTER LONG CHASE COPS FIND STOLEN AUTOMOBILE

An exciting chase after two automobile thieves was made by Patrolmen Warren and Lyton early Monday morning, after the report was received from H. C. Covey, 219 Lynch building, that his Cadillac automobile had been stolen.

The two thieves had several hours' start on the automobile sleuths, but the sleuths were prepared to give the thieves an all night chase if necessary. After circling the northern part of the city several times the machine was found at the corner of Tenth and Admiral streets, abandoned. A thorough search of the vicinity failed to reveal any clue to the thieves.

Russian Plan Fails.
PARIS, Sunday, May 18.—There is a general impression that the reply of M. Tschirker, bolshevik foreign minister of Russia, to Dr. Fridtjof Nansen's proposals to feed Russia, brings the whole project to a close. The reply is generally accepted here as in effect a refusal by the bolsheviks to cease attempting to invade their neighbors' territory. It seems probable that the allied and associated governments will support with food and bolshevik attempts to invade adjacent states.
